

Niyazbek Aldashev

partner - Bishkek

Professional profile

Niyazbek Aldashev advises corporations on corporate law matters, including cross-border investments, financing and energy projects. He also represents corporations and sovereign states in international dispute resolution procedures, including international arbitration panels.

His expertise includes M&A transactions, tax (including foreign tax planning), anti-monopoly and secured transactions. In addition, he has also litigated in high-profile arbitration proceedings in Europe and in the CIS.

Some transactions in which he has been involved include:

- Advising on joint venture projects in the mining and oil refinery industry
- Negotiating a commercial lease deal for a global aircraft manufacturer
- A large-scale M&A project in the telecommunications sector

Areas of specialisation

- Corporate/M&A
- Energy and aviation law
- Litigation and dispute resolution

Education

- IBA Fellow in International Legal Practice, 2009.
- Westminster University, London (United Kingdom), MA in Diplomacy, 1995
- St. Petersburg State University, St. Petersburg (Russia), Ph.D. in International Law, 1993
- St. Petersburg State University (formerly known as Leningrad State University) (Russia), Juris Doctor, 1990

Admissions and qualifications

- Licensed to plead before all courts of the Kyrgyz Republic
- Member of the Brussels Bar

Memberships and affiliations

- Licensed to plead before all courts of the Kyrgyz Republic
- Member of the Brussels Bar

Prior experience

- LeBoeuf, Lamb, Greene & MacRae LLP, Bishkek (Kyrgyz Republic) and Brussels (Belgium)
- Baker & McKenzie, Almaty (Kazakhstan)
- Mayer, Brown & Platt, Bishkek (Kyrgyz Republic)
- Head of the International Law Department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Kyrgyz Republic

Languages

English, Russian & Kyrgyz