

Pieter Londers

partner - Brussels

Professional profile

Pieter Londers heads the firm's litigation practice. He advises both national and international clients on commercial contracts and transactions, commercial distribution, competition law, fair trade practices and civil liability.

He has developed a broad expertise in construction law and specialises in real estate related assessment procedures carried out by court appointed experts.

Areas of specialisation

- Litigation and dispute resolution
- Distribution law
- Real Estate/ Construction law

Education

- University of Paris I – Sorbonne (France), PostGraduate degree in International Economic Law, 1997
- University of Leuven (KUL), Law Degree (“Licentiaat in de Rechten”), 1996
- University of Lund (Sweden), 1995

Admissions and qualifications

Admitted to the Brussels bar

Memberships and affiliations

- Director of the Brussels' School for Trainee Lawyers, 2007 to present
- Member of the Brussels Bar Association 2007-2010
- President of the Brussels Young Bar Association (VPG), 2006-2007
- Board Member of Jurismus (international network of young lawyers), 2005-2006
- Member of the Eurojuris International Litigation Group, 2003-2006

Prior experience

Racine & Vergels, Brussels (Belgium)

Languages

English, Dutch, French & German

+32 2 239 20 00 (Telephone)
+32 2 239 20 04 (Direct line)
+32 495 224 905 (Mobile)
p.londers@lorenz-law.com