Lorenz Press Release 16.07.2013

Lorenz lawyer appointed Co-Chair of the American Bar Association International Law
Privacy E-Commerce and Data Security Committee

Brussels, July 16, 2013 – Katherine Woodcock of Lorenz' Brussels Office has been Co-Chair of the American Bar Association Section of International Law's Privacy, E-Commerce and Data Security Committee.

Katherine is a Senior Associate in the Brussels law firm of Lorenz and specializes in data privacy, technology and corporate law.

She is a graduate of the Golden Gate University School of Law and is a member of the American Bar Association.

The ABA Section of International Law, which has more than 20,000 members in 90 countries, is the leader in the development of policy in the international arena, the promotion of the rule of law, and the education of international law practitioners. It focuses on the full range of international legal issues and is involved in a wide variety of substantive legal activities. The Section seeks to promote and further the development of interest, activity, and research in international and comparative law and related areas; to promote knowledge and formulate professional opinion of international law among members of the legal profession and others; to promote professional relationships with lawyers similarly engaged in foreign countries; and to advance the rule of law in the world. The Section has numerous task forces and more than 60 regional and special interest committees within 12 divisions – Africa/Eurasia, Americas/Middle East, Business Regulation, Constituent, Corporate, Disputes, Finance, Industries, Legal Practice, Public International Law, International Treaties, and Tax, Estates & Individuals – to closely monitor and disseminate information on domestic and international policy developments with implications for law practice.

With more than 413,000 members, the American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law.
